

PPG

Philippine Politics and Governance

Grade 12, Semester 1 study outline

A summary of section headings and key terms, made by students for revision. It is not the handout and does not replace it.

01. Introduction to Politics and Political Science

I. Introduction

Aristotle, the Father of Political Science, once said, "Man is by nature a political animal". The tendency and

1. Concept of justice - what and who is morally and politically right

2. Concept of power - source of authority

4. Concepts on political structures - different ideologies in a state

B. Political Science - is a social science discipline that studies the state and the government. It is a systematized body of knowledge based on facts that deal with

III. Major Schools of Thought in Political Science According to Heywood (2013)

A. Philosophical tradition (otherwise known as political philosophy)

This is regarded as the traditional approach to politics. The Greek philosophers Plato and Aristotle are usually

B. Empirical tradition

Political scientists who advocate this approach believe that any account of political reality must be impartial and

C. Scientific tradition

This tradition promotes objective and quantifiable ways of studying politics. The scientific tradition was further

Key terms

Politics - born out of these social interactions. The word politics was formulated by the Greeks during the 4th and

02. Elements of State- Government and Governance

I. State

According to Prof. Garner, the state is "a community of persons more or less numerous, permanently occupying a

II. Five Elements of the State

1) People - This is one of the basic elements of the state. A state can have millions and even billions of people

III. Government and Governance

Government is defined as the group of people with the authority to govern a country or state, a particular

Key terms

China - considered as the biggest country and has the biggest population in the world

Government - defined as the group of people with the authority to govern a country or state, a particular Governance - defined as the process of decision-making and the process by which decisions are implemented. At

03. Political Ideologies (Part 1)

I. Introduction

An ideology is more or less a coherent set of ideas that direct or organize a specific political action. It consists of

II. MAJOR POLITICAL IDEOLOGIES AND THEIR KEY TENETS (Heywood 2013)

1. ANARCHISM

- Political authority in all its forms, and especially in the form of the state, is both evil and unnecessary

2. CONSERVATISM

- Tradition must be conserved. These traditions include established customs, institutions, and ways of

3. FACISM

- Ultrationalist ideology. As such, it subscribes to the idea of a supreme race, whose members should

4. FEMINISM

- A diverse but unifying theme is the desire to enhance the social role of women.

5. LIBERALISM

- Belief in individualism underscores the importance of the human individual compared to any other

6. SOCIALISM

- Belief in the community highlights the degree to which the individual is connected with others. Identity
-

04. Political Ideologies (Part 2)

I. Ideology

Ideology may be defined as 'a political belief system' (Heywood). As a phenomenon, it is the mainspring of an

1. The sensations that people experience as they interact with the material world

2. The ideas that form in their minds due to those sensations

The following are several definitions of political ideology according to Heywood (2013).

II. MAJOR POLITICAL IDEOLOGIES AND THEIR KEY TENETS (Heywood 2013)

1. MARXISM

- Historical materialism or the materialist conception of history provides that the economy (mode of

2. SOCIAL DEMOCRACY

- Social democrats stand for a balance between the market and the state, and between the individual and

3. GREEN POLITICS/ ECOLOGISM

- This ideology is linked with the emergence of the environmental movement. It also rose as a revolt

4. COSMOPOLITANISM

- It is a belief in a cosmopolis or a world state. It is thus associated with the project of the world
-

05. Power

I. Introduction

As per our knowledge about political ideologies, it is also a given that whatever ideology is in effect, there is that

II. Nature of Power

In any given endeavour at any given situation, the players in that scenario all become power players, where

III. Dimension of Power

Power has its dimensions, which makes us aware of its scope or boundaries, and they are as follows:

IV. Types of Power

If power has dimensions, it has its kinds or types as well and they are listed below.

V. Consequences of Power

Pawlen, R.A. (2017) Philippine Politics and Governance. Manila, Philippines. Rex Bookstore

06. Globalization

I. Introduction

Heywood (2013) defined globalization as the process through which societies have become so intertwined or

II. Globalization in the Philippines

Here in the Philippines, the domestic and political policies change because of events happening in the

III. Features of Globalization

Does globalization need to happen? Globalization conjoined with the fast improvement of technologies. The

1. Declining relevance of geographical distance;

The use of internet connectivity virtually shortens the distance between and among the people of different states.

2. Lessening significance of territorial boundaries

The development in air, water and land transportation delimits the movement of people between states. The

III. Forms of Globalization

Globalization resulted in a growing interdependence among actors, activities, and processes all over the world.

IV. Effects of Globalization as to Economy

The developed States enjoy the advantage in the balance of opportunities and threats. In contrast, the

V. Effects of Globalization in Developed States

To gain upper hand in economic competitiveness, developed states adopted new policies. Some developed

VI. Effects of Globalization in Developing Countries

The impact of globalization in developing countries in terms of economy is far greater than in developed

Key terms

Developed countries - markets of Multinational corporations which in turn MNCs are required to purchase

07. History of Philippine politics and governance

I. Introduction

This module is to help you learn and enjoy Philippine politics. It is a tool for self - study. In the introduction cluster

II. Pre-Colonial Period

A long time ago, the Philippines was already home to native settlers. The Negritos, the Indonesians, and the

2. Power to appoint

4. Administrator of the

5. Chief justice/

IV. THE AMERICAN PERIOD and THE FIRST PHILIPPINE REPUBLIC

On August 13, 1889, the Mock Battle of Manila between America and Spanish forces happened.

V. AMERICAN COLONIAL PERIOD

The Military Government (headed by a general, serving as a chief political executive of an area under

VI. THE COMMONWEALTH GOVERNMENT AND THE SECOND REPUBLIC

November 15, 1935, was the inauguration of the Philippine Commonwealth Government. America

VII. THE THIRD, FOURTH, & FIFTH REPUBLIC

July 4, 1946, is the day of the inauguration of the Third Philippine Republic. Hence from 1946 to 1962,

1. The Roxas

2. The Quirino

Key terms

He - helped, of course, by community elders and cultural/religious leaders/Masters

08. Executive branch

I. Introduction

The Philippines has a presidential, unitary, and republican system of government. Under a presidential system of

II. Executive Power

Executive power is roughly defined as the power to implement laws in one country. If the legislature's task is to

2. A registered

3. Able to read

4. At least 40

5. A resident of

III. Powers of the President

The Philippine president is granted specific powers by the Constitution.

IV. Checks on the President's Power

As what has been mentioned earlier, the branches of the government are given the ability to check on the other

Key terms

Executive power - roughly defined as the power to implement laws in one country. If the legislature's task is to

09. Legislative branch

I. Introduction

The Philippines is a republic with a presidential form of government wherein power is equally divided among its

II. Legislative power

According to Section 1 of Article VI of the 1987 Philippine Constitution: "The legislative power shall be vested in

1. Natural-born citizen of the Philippines;
2. At least thirty-five years old;
3. Able to read and write;
4. Registered voter; and
5. Resident of the Philippines for not less than two years before election day

It is worthy to note that the composition of the Senate is smaller in number as compared to the House of

1. Natural-born citizen of the Philippines;
2. At least twenty-five years old;
3. Able to read and write; and

III. Legislative process

Congress is responsible for making enabling laws to make sure the spirit of the constitution is upheld in the

IV. Other responsibilities

Aside from lawmaking, Congress is also given several powers and responsibilities in certain situations.

Key terms

Congress - responsible for making enabling laws to make sure the spirit of the constitution is upheld in the Bills - laws in the making. They pass into law when they are approved by both houses and the President of the

10. Judiciary branch

I. Introduction

The judicial branch of the Philippines comprises the Supreme Court, which is set up in the Constitution, and three

II. Regular courts

The Supreme Court (SC) is the most elevated court of the land and is the court after all other options have run

III. Special courts

Some courts have been created by law to deal with specific types of cases, with their rulings restricted to this

Key terms

Beneath the Supreme Court - Court of Appeals, which likewise has a public degree with various divisions

Cases involving the military - handled by civil courts, except when the offense is determined to be service-

11. Local government unit

I. Introduction

The local government in the Philippines is divided into three levels: provinces and independent cities, component

II. Levels of local governments

This is the smallest administrative division in the Philippines and is the native Filipino term for a village, district, or

III. Responsibilities

Among the social services and facilities that local government should provide, as stipulated in Section 17 of the

IV. Decentralization

Decentralization as a concept has two features: political and administrative. While political decentralization

Key terms

Provinces - classified according to average annual income based on the previous 4 calendar years. Effective July

12. Suffrage

I. Introduction

Suffrage may be exercised by all citizens of the Philippines, not otherwise disqualified by law, who are at least 18

II. Scope of Suffrage

- Election means by which people choose their officials for definite and fixed periods and to whom they

III. Types of Suffrage

- Universal Suffrage where it exists, the right to vote is not restricted by sex, race, social status, education

IV. Types of Election

- General Elections are those held for the purpose of electing national and local officials simultaneously.

13. Political parties in the Philippines

I. Introduction

A political party is an organization that coordinates candidates to compete in a specific country's elections. It is

II. Party systems

Political parties are ubiquitous across both democratic and autocratic countries, and there is often very little

III. Political parties in the Philippines

- The first Philippine political party, established in 1900, was the Federal Party, which advocated peace and

Key terms

Political parties - collective entities that organize competitions for political offices. The members of a political

14. Civil Society and Social movements

I. Introduction

Civil society organizations are basically non-government members of society that promote the interest of the

II. Civil society history

The participation of civil society in governance was mentioned by Aristotle and Plato as far back as ancient

III. Social Movement

Social movement was defined by Mario Diani as "a distinct social process, consisting of the mechanisms through

IV. Civil society and Social Movements in the Philippines

Our country is a witness to a massive social movement after the lifting of Martial Law in 1981 and the

V. Types of Civil society

Non-government organizations (NGOs) voluntary and non-profit groups composed of people working and

Key terms

Civil society organizations - basically non-government members of society that promote the interest of the

Our country - witness to a massive social movement after the lifting of Martial Law in 1981 and the

Cooperatives - groups or joint (business) enterprises that aim to provide profit or services for its

15. Citizenship

I. Introduction

Citizenship is more than having an affiliation to a certain country and government, in our case, the Republic of the

II. Meaning of citizenship and citizen

(1) Citizenship is a term denoting membership of a citizen in a political society, which membership implies,

III. Distinguished from nationality and nationals

From the point of view of international law, the terms "citizenship" and "citizen" do not exactly mean the same as

IV. General ways of acquiring citizenship

- Involuntary method. - By birth, because of blood relationship or place of birth; and

V. Citizens by birth

There are two principles or rules that govern citizenship by birth, namely:

VI. Citizens by blood relationship. (Art. IV Sec. 1(2))

- The Philippines, in accordance with Section 1, paragraph 2, follows the principle of jus sanguinis. In the

VII. Citizens through election under the 1935

- Under the 1935 Constitution, a child born of a Filipino mother, who was married to a foreigner, is born

VIII. Citizens by naturalization. (Art IV. Sec. 1 (4))

In the contemplation of the Constitution, even those who are not Filipino citizens at birth and who cannot take

VIII. Philippine citizenship may be lost or reacquired in

- Expatriation refers to the voluntary loss or renunciation of citizenship.

IX. Dual allegiance of citizens is inimical to the national interest and shall be dealt with by law.

Key terms

Citizenship - more than having an affiliation to a certain country and government, in our case, the Republic of the Natural-born - those who do not need to perform

Naturalization - act of formally adopting a foreigner

16. Roles of Citizenship

I. Introduction

This lesson defines the Provisions of the Constitution on citizenship and rights of citizens are also included to

II. Duties and obligations of citizens

Citizenship implies not only rights but obligations. As a special being, a citizen is part of society, and, therefore, has

Key terms

Constitution - expression of the sovereign will of our

17. The Good citizen- Attitudes and Civic virtues

I. Introduction

According to Rosenau (1997), citizens can be classified according to their self-environment orientations in which

II. Citizen attitudes

- Citizens can be apathetic, self-centered, ideological or altruistic, or democratic. These self-environment

III. Citizen Civic virtues

In terms of civic virtues, Galston (1991) listed four types of civic virtues of citizens that are required for a

1. General virtues: courage; law-abidingness; loyalty

2. Social virtues: independence; open-mindedness;

III. Citizenship in different political contexts

Nonetheless, while these civic virtues are important to the functioning of modern democracies, it begs us to ask

18. Political Engagement and Youth Empowerment

I. Introduction

After learning the essential concepts of political science as well as the state of politics and governance in the

II. Political Engagement: From the Streets to the Screens

A series of consultations by the National Youth Commission (NYC) found that a primary challenge for Filipino youth

III. Youth Empowerment: A Framework for Action

The World Bank notes that nearly 50% of the world's population is under 25, creating a "youth bulge." Viewing

IV. References

Atienza, M. E. L. (2021). The Sangguniang Kabataan as a Political Space for Youth Participation. Philippine Political